BEST PAKISTANI RESTAURANTS IN NORTH AMERICA

Finally, there is a list of the Best Pakistani Restaurants in North America.

Pakistani cuisine is very similar to Indian cuisine, but unlike Indian food, many of Pakistani dishes are made from meat, especially beef and goat meat. Pakistani cuisine varies from the north province of Punjab to the south province of Sindh. Pakistanis also enjoy Turkish, Mediterranean, and Chinese cuisines, and there is a tendency to create fusion food such as Pakistani-Chinese fusion cuisine.

There are over 500,000 Pakistanis living in the United States, with the highest populations in New York, Texas, California, Illinois, and Virginia. An increasing number of Pakistanis work in the medical field, with over 17,000 doctors practicing medicine in America. In Canada, which is home to over 200,000 Pakistanis, the majority resides in the province of Ontario.

Pakistani Restaurants in America was created as a Facebook page in 2021 to gather and share information about Pakistani restaurants in North America. Most of the Pakistani restaurants are found in New York-New Jersey, Texas, California, and Ontario (Canada), because of the large diaspora living in these areas. We polled people to select restaurants in the following categories and received over 6,000 votes:

- BEST Pakistani Restaurants in USA
- BEST Pakistani Restaurants in Canada

Many of the best Pakistani restaurants are in New Jersey, so New Jersey deserved a special poll "New Jersey's BEST NEW Pakistani Restaurants". These restaurants opened in the last two years. Pakistanis are meat lovers, but most do not eat pork, or drink alcohol, and they look for halal meats which are not readily available in American restaurants. We created a poll for them for the "BEST Halal Steaks Restaurant in USA". Some of these restaurants are Pakistani restaurants, and some are American restaurants that serve some halal steaks. Here are the results from our polls.
